- 10.1.3 The use of flash bulbs is forbidden in the central area of a Society event, being defined as any area where people must be present in order to participate in the event, such as the hall where a feast or court is taking place. The autocrat shall be responsible for defining the boundaries of the central area and should be consulted before any photography using flash bulbs takes place. Photography with flash bulbs is permitted in the interior of a pavilion only with the owner's permission, but only if this use of a flash bulb will not disturb anyone in the main area of an event. It is hoped that anyone taking photographs at any time will first obtain permission from those being photographed as a matter of courtesy.

A new branch will be granted incipient status and be listed in the Kingdom Regnum when it has submitted a satisfactory New Branch Application to the Kingdom Seneschal (or designated representative), and the Kingdom Seneschal has been satisfied that a legitimate attempt is being made to organize a new branch. An attempt to organize a new branch within territory granted to an existing branch must be approved by any local Seneschals.

12.2 Advancement

A branch will advance from incipient to full status, and have its officers ratified by their superiors, after filing a petition with the Kingdom Seneschal and satisfying any other requirements as specified by the Kingdom Seneschal. Advancement to Barony status should follow procedures set forth in Corpora.

To maintain full status, a branch must have a designated seneschal and exchequer, and either a herald, marshal, or a minister of arts and sciences. All of these officers must be an Associate or above member of the SCA, Inc., and have the Atlantian newsletter delivered to their address. A branch that has no marshal can only hold fighting events with the sponsorship of a warranted Atlantian marshal who will accept responsibility for the fighting at the event. A branch that has no warranted Minister of the List (MOL) can only hold fighting events with the sponsorship of a warranted MOL who will accept responsibility for the MOL responsibilities at the event.

12.4 Status Changes

A branch may petition the Kingdom Seneschal and the Crown to change its status, for example from Canton to Shire. When the petitioning branch is subsidiary to another, the Seneschal and Baron/Baroness or Prince/Princess (if any) for that latter branch must be consulted. A branch which has ceased to meet the requirements for its status may be declared extinct or be degraded to a lower status, by recommendation from the Kingdom Seneschal and the Crown to the Board of Directors.

13 Miscellanea

13.1 Royal Household Positions

All positions in the Royal household and all ambassadorial positions are held only by virtue of the power of the Crown then reigning, and are therefore null and void at the end of the reign. Subsequent Crowns may reaffirm such appointments, as they see fit.

13.2 Garb Restrictions

With the exceptions of the traditional symbols of the Peerages, and the requirements for pre-17th century style, there are no restrictions of any kind concerning garb in the Kingdom of Atlantia.

Appendix F - Charters for the Atlantian Kingdom Notables

The Atlantian Kingdom Notables are positions held in service to the Crown of Atlantia for the tenure of one year. The competitions are held annually at Kingdom Level Events, unless the Crown sees need to do otherwise. Competitions are to be run by the current Kingdom Notable in conjunction with the Kingdom Minister of Arts and Sciences (or Kingdom Triton Herald for the Scrivener Royal) as a representative of the Crown. If the Notable is unable to fulfill that obligation, the Crown in consultation with the Kingdom Minister of Arts and Sciences (or Kingdom Triton Herald for the Scrivener Royal) will find a suitable alternative. The Crown may remove a Notable at Their discretion. If the Notable is unable to complete his or her term or is removed early for any reason, the Crown shall direct the Kingdom Minister of Arts and Sciences (or Kingdom Triton Herald for the Scrivener Royal) to hold a competition at the next convenient Kingdom Level Event, or the Crown may choose a successor.

The Crown may choose to modify the list of Notables in consultation with the Kingdom Minister of Arts and Sciences (or Kingdom Triton Herald for the Scrivener Royal), to encourage any art they see fit.

The Royal Notables are selected for excellence in their field. They are expected to combine excellence of product or performance with a reasonable attempt at period materials and/ or style. The Royal Notables should encourage the arts for which they are selected. Suggested goals are: services in their art for the Crown, sponsoring competitions in their field, and teaching in such venues as are available and reasonable.

The Royal Notables are selected by competition in their field at a Kingdom level event. The competition should be announced in the Acorn at least twice before the event where the competition takes place. The current Notable, in conjunction with the Kingdom Minister of Arts and Sciences (or Kingdom Triton Herald for the Scrivener Royal) as representative of the Crown, will set the details of the competition and judging standards. Judges should be drawn from the following: [1] The Crown or their proxy, [2] the Heirs or their proxy, [3] the Kingdom MoAS or proxy, and [4] the current Kingdom Notable. Additional judges may be chosen at the discretion of the Kingdom Notable; in no case should there be fewer than three judges.

The Kingdom Notables are as follows:

Royal Bard for excellence in the individual performance of any of the following fields: singing, instrumental music, poetic rendition, or storytelling. The Royal Bard is encouraged to be proficient in at least two of these fields. One or two bards will serve at the same time, depending on the whim of Their Royal Majesties.

Royal Brewer for excellence in making beer, ale, mead, wine, or other period alcoholic beverages.

Poeta Atlantia for excellence in composition of poetry in at least two period forms.

Scrivener Royal for excellence in calligraphy and illumination, and acts as the personal scribe of the Crown. The Scrivener Royal holds office under the Office of the Clerk of the Signet.

Royal Baker for excellence in producing baked goods such as breads, cakes, pastries, and wafers. The baker shall be proficient in at least two period types of baking.

The Royal Archer is known for their excellence on the archery ranges. The Royal Archer is to be chosen each year by right of arms. The outgoing Royal Archer shall conduct, and not participate in, an archery shoot open to all at an event where archery is the focus of the day. The top eight scoring archers from Atlantia at that archery event, who so choose to compete for the title, shall compete in a single elimination tournament. At the discretion of the Crown, the winner of the tournament shall become the new Royal Archer.

Appendix G- Children of Sitting Royalty

Children under the age of 18 of the reigning King and Queen may be referred to as the Prince(ss) Royale. This status is limited to the duration of the reign and conveys no precedence beyond the reign. At the conclusion of the reign, the Crown may gift these children with a Royal Augmentation of Arms, to be a purple escalloped shell.
