Greetings Atlantia,

We are all so happy to be back open and able to be together in person again. These have definitely been some trying times but Atlantia is strong and will persevere. The Kingdom Arts and Science Festival is coming up. We are sure to see some wonderful and amazing things that the artisans from around the Kingdom have created.

We are looking forward to Gulf Wars. We hope that many of you will be able to attend and support your Kingdom in this wonderful opportunity. Our alliance is with Ansteorra and we are looking forward to all the fun in store. His Majesty will be traveling to Defending the Gate at the end of the month. Stay safe Atlantia and we hope to see you soon.

TRM Eckhard and Jane
From the Office
of the
Kingdom MOAS

After the online competitions at 12th Night, the MoAS wishes to congratulate our new Queen’s A&S Champion Baroness Jane Fox and King’s A&S Champion Doña Costança Daguiar. Doña Costança also triumphed in the Tempore Atlantia (1500-1600 AD) with her entry of a Laurel Cloak for Maestra Nicho-ola d’Isenfűr.

We are looking forward to this year’s Kingdom A&S Festival which at this writing is an in-person event. This will be a day to enjoy the glories of Atlantis’s A&S community. However, for those unable to attend, the MoAs will provide an option for online displays of completed works and works in progress. There will also be a number of individual challenges for artisans to take up. As always, the event will include the Laurel’s Persona Pentathlon and Youth Triathlon sponsored by the Order of the Laurel.

Whether online or in person, until the end of the current reign on April 30, 2022, entries in kingdom level A&S competitions (Cultural Atlantis, Tempore Atlantis) that include a reference to Atlantis’s 40th anniversary will receive a token to thank the entrant. It could be casting 40 buttons, or incorporating an “XL” into a border design. Use your imagination and delight us all!

As a reminder, ongoing challenges are to Bring the Queen the Heat (present Her Majesty with a spicy dish to taste) which runs through the end of Her reign and the Invitatum communitatis parvis (small team challenge) which runs through May 31, 2022.

YIS,
Dame Deirdre O’Siodhachain

The Acorn, Volume 42, Issue 3, March 2022

From the Office
of the Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings Atlantis!

The Kingdom Chronicler’s office is in need of your help. I am still seeking a Waiver/Release Form Deputy. The duties include receiving new waivers/release forms, sending a copy to the Kingdom Chronicler and a copy to the Digital Deputy for uploading into the database. Please email the chronicler if you are interested in this position.

Windmasters’ Hill is in need of a new Baronial Chronicler. If you are interested in this position please reach out to the Kingdom Chronicler and/or the Baronial Seneschal.

Please remember that newsletters are still due between the 1st and 5th of each month, end of business day. If you are having problems publishing on time, contact the Kingdom Chronicler. If you feel you don’t have enough content every month, contact the Kingdom Chronicler.

Yours in Service,
Lady Caitrina inghean Fhearghuis
Chronicler, Kingdom of Atlantis
Greetings Atlantis!

I want to take a moment to talk to you about Spiking Events and Event Flyers. The last few weeks have been a long, ever looping email between Event Stewards, the Calendar Deputy, Melchior and myself. While Spike has been getting an upgrade there have been unique challenges but these do not effect the long standing rules and requirements of what information must be in those forms and when they must be submitted to be published on the Kingdom Calendar and in The ACORN. I’d like to take this opportunity to reintroduce this information to the populace at large because getting your event in SPIKE on the calendar should be the easiest part of planning an event.

I have provided the (live) links for How to Spike, Spike (form), and Event Flyer.

Event Steward’s address is not necessary unless they are also acting as the Reservationist; phone and email only.

Each item on these forms needs to be filled out, even if you enter N/A because, for example, there is no camping. Your flyer should include enough information for the populace to be able to make the decision to attend based on distance, activities, accessibility for disabilities, a website for detailed information, and written driving directions. You are advertising your event. You have worked hard to put together a wonderful time so make sure your event is spiked and the flyer is submitted by the 1st day of the month of which it will appear.  This means event happening in March need to be submitted between Feb 25th and March 1st.

Atlantia Letter of Decision

January 2022

Unto Gisela Triton, Roderick Opal, and the Atlantian College of Heralds, Greetings!

We did not have any submissions for January OSCAR. However we did have pends from Mid-2021 Virtual Heralds Point. In this case all but one of the pends we were able to get the submitters approval for the suggested changes and these will be included February’s OSCAR. The one that will be returned below was pended so that more research and verification could be done on the supporting name documentation. Unfortunately the documentation does not support the name as submitted. My thanks to Sjöveig Þrándardóttir for her help and knowledge of period Japanese naming practices.

Returns:

1. Sakikusa no Yuri - New Name

The Documentation does not support the name

Sakikusa: Sakikusa is intended as a Japanese uji/clan name backformed from the historical occupational lineage Sakikusabe. The -be suffix was added to uji names usually to indicate a guild/group of artisans.

However additional research found: Uji names were not freely assumable pretty much as far back as we have reliable records for Japan. They are not normal family names in a number of important ways. They are best thought of as clan names. Regardless, at least since about the time of the Taika Reform, Uji names were only granted by imperial decree, and we have a comprehensive list of Uji names. Which does not include Skikusabe.

Yuri: Yuri is a surname found in NCMJ, pp. 98, 293, 330. However, it is also a reading for 'lily' found in waka poetry (see http://www.wakapoetry.net/yuri/). An example of this word is found in Man'yōshū vol. 18, poems 4113-5. Although Yuri was notattested as a nanori/given name, there is also a pattern of using plant names as given names (NCMJ, pp. 160-70). Examples for women: Matsu ['pine tree', 1332], Kurame ['Aphananthe Aspera (flowering tree)', 784], Kitsume ['tangerine', 784], Fujiko ['wisteria', 1183], Kiku ['chrysanthemum', 1572]. Examples for men: Takatoshi ['pine tree', 1600], Fujifusa and Fujihiro ['wisteria', 1332 and 1568, respectively], and Fusashige ['bloom/bouquet/overgrow/lush growth', 1572]. The possessive particle no can be used with both masculine and feminine names per p. 6-7 of NCMJ, which notes that is it not written but used in speech.

However additional research found that: The text of the Manyōshū is available online at: http://jti.lib.virginia.edu/japanese/manyoshu/AnoMany.html. While the poems in the Manyōshū establish that "yuri" was the Japanese word for lily at the time the poems were composed, that does not necessarily demonstrate that "Yuri" would be used as the name of a relatively ordinary person at that time.

2. Sakikusa no Yuri - New Device

Purpure, three lilies affronty one and two within and conjoined to an annulet, a base argent

No problem or the problem was found/corrected while the device was in review. Because the name is being returned the device must be returned as well. Kingdom level does not have the authority to create holding names to allow it to go forward.

3. Sakikusa no Yuri- New Badge

QUARTERLY BOARD MEETINGS

ALL QUARTERLY BOARD MEETINGS HAVE A 10:00 A.M. START TIME UNLESS OTHERWISE STATED. ATTENDEES ARE ASKED TO WEAR MODERN CLOTHING TO BOARD MEETINGS.

PLEASE NOTE:

For meetings not held in Milpitas, California, the procedure for the scheduling board meetings is to rotate the meetings between the different parts of the Known World. By necessity, this scheduling is done one to two years in advance. Often this before the Kingdom Calendar is populated. While Corporate Operations reviews the Kingdom Calendar before scheduling a meeting and sends an email to the Kingdom Seneschal long before a meeting is finalized, it is not possible to guarantee that conflicts will be avoided.

Kingdoms interested in hosting a Board Meeting should contact the Corporate Office for more information.

Please see pages 14 & 15 for the listing of all Board Members, Corporate and Society Officers, Committees, and Kingdom Seneschals. Updates are listed in RED.
