1 Kingdom Law

1.1 Requirements for Publication and Effect of Kingdom Law

In accordance with Corpora IV F, laws must be proclaimed in order to take effect. Laws must be submitted for publishing in the Kingdom Newsletter, or its electronic supplement, or addendum on the Kingdom Web site, at or before the Crown's last court to be valid. The law changes will not be published without electronic approval from the Crown. Law changes will take effect on the first day of the month listed in the Kingdom Newsletter or its electronic supplement in which the changes are published.

1.2 Updating of the Atlantian Great Book of Law

The Atlantian Great Book of Law must be updated on the Kingdom web site within fourteen (14) days of notification of the new law in the Kingdom Newsletter.

2 The Crown

2.1 Duties and Powers of the Crown

In addition to the duties and powers set forth in Corpora IV C – G, the Crown shall:

- Consult with the populace of the Kingdom, the landed Barons and Baronesses, the Great Officers of State, and their Officers of State, on matters which the Crown deems necessary
- Ensure the succession of the Crown
- Ensure the continuity of reigns
- Create, modify, and repeal laws after consultation with Curia Regis
- Negotiate and enact treaties with other Kingdoms
- Ensure the proper transfer of Royal Records
- Reside within the boundaries of the Kingdom of Atlantia throughout the duration of their reign
- Accept custody of royal regalia and property placed in their care by the Kingdom Chamberlain
- Maintain any regalia entrusted to the Crown. Notify the Kingdom Chamberlain immediately if regalia is lost and/or damaged in any way
- Return any regalia to the Kingdom Chamberlain no later than one (1) week following the Coronation of their Heirs

Any persons holding pieces of regalia or other Kingdom property in their possession shall maintain such regalia and Kingdom property in the same state as when it was received from the Kingdom Chamberlain, subject to normal wear and tear. The Kingdom Chamberlain shall establish a process from the turnover of regalia from one reign to another and document the conditions in which it is returned. Possessors of regalia or other Kingdom property are liable for any damage or loss to such Kingdom property due to their negligence or misconduct.

2.2 Ensuring the Continuity of Reigns

2.2.1 In the case that one of the Heirs is unable to assume the throne, the remaining Heir shall assume the duties of both throughout the Reign and until the Coronation of Their successors.

2.2.2 In the case that neither of the Heirs is able to assume the throne, a new Crown Tournament shall be held at the first possible event to ensure the succession.

2.2.3 In the case that either the Sovereign or the Consort is unable to complete the reign, the remaining Monarch shall assume the duties of both until the Coronation of Their successors.

2.2.4 In the case that neither the Sovereign nor Consort is able to complete the reign:

- If the Heirs have been chosen, They shall be crowned at the first possible event
- If the Heirs have not yet been chosen:
 - The Kingdom Seneschal shall ensure that a Crown Tournament is held at the first possible event
 - The victors shall be invested as Sovereign and Consort immediately upon the conclusion of the Tournament
- In the interim between the abdication of the Monarchs and the crowning of the new Monarchs, the Kingdom Seneschal's duties and powers shall include:
 - Holding in trust the regalia and records of the monarchy for the future Crown
 - Conducting such correspondence in the name of the Crown as is deemed necessary for the function of the Kingdom and to ensure continuity for the future Crown

2.3 Enacting, Changing, and Repealing Law

2.3.1 The Crowns shall create, modify, or repeal Kingdom Law only after consultation with Curia Regis.

2.3.2 The Crown may change law without consulting Curia Regis to fix grammatical mistakes, numbering errors, duplication, and style inconsistencies that do not change the content and intent of the law.

2.3.3 The Crown's word is law, in accordance with Corpora I A, where modern law, Corpora, Society policy and Kingdom law are silent.

2.4 Treaty Specifications

The Kingdom of Atlantia may take part in treaties with other Kingdoms of the SCA, Inc.

- Treaties shall be negotiated by the Crown or their designated representatives
 - Treaties shall be ratified by being presented to Curia Regis, agreed to by the Heirs, and published as a newsletter supplement. A treaty cannot be ratified until the Heirs have been chosen
 - Treaties shall be changed by the same process as ratification
- All treaties in effect for the Kingdom of Atlantia shall be published in the Atlantian Great Book of Law

2.5 Royal Records and Electronic Systems Access

Royal Records are defined as:

- All correspondence concerning sanctions, complaints, or investigations in progress, including emails, notes, letters, and all other records relating to these matters
- Pending correspondence in relation to treaties or charters
- Pending official correspondence from any Society Officer

2.5.1 Transfer of Royal Records

The outgoing Crowns must transfer all Royal Records to Their Heirs or the Kingdom Seneschal on or before Coronation.

2.5.2 Access to Atlantian Electronic Systems

The Kingdom Webminister, or their designee, shall ensure that:

- The Heirs shall be granted access to the Award Recommendation System, the Electronic System for Pollings (ESP), and access to all Order Watch Lists no more than fifteen (15) days after winning the Crown Tournament
- The Heirs shall be granted access to begin conducting Their own pollings within the ESP no less than thirty (30) days prior to Their Coronation
- The Heirs shall be granted access to the Court Docket site no less than thirty (30) days prior to Their Coronation
- The current Monarchs will have precedence for any conflicts between the Heirs Court Docket and Their own
- The Heirs shall be granted access to read all existing pollings within the ESP no less than thirty (30) days prior to Coronation

3. Curia Regis

Curia Regis is hereby defined as an assembly called by the Crown for the purpose of consultation regarding the administration and governance of the Kingdom.

An Emergency Curia Regis is defined as an assembly called by the Crown in order to consult and receive advice on the administration and governance of the Kingdom for the limited purpose of resolving conflicts between modern law, Corpora, Society Policy, and/or some other Society directive and Kingdom Law. No other business may be conducted at an Emergency Curia.

Written pollings shall be delivered to the Orders by either the Principal, at the behest of the Crown or Heirs, or by the Crown directly, to those members of the Order who are eligible to receive them. Written pollings must be returned by the members directly to the Crown (or, at the Crown's discretion, Their Heirs).

Electronic pollings are sent via the Atlantian ESP system by the Peerage and Order Principals, , at the behest of the Crown or Heirs, to those members of the Order who are eligible to receive them. Electronic pollings are completed in the ESP system, and are accessible by the Crown (or, at the Crown's discretion, Their Heirs).

8.14 Polling Residency Requirements

The Crown shall not consider polling responses received from any member whose principal residence is not the Kingdom of Atlantia at the date of the polling, unless a person is an Atlantian citizen by treaty. Upon learning a member of a polling Order has moved out of Kingdom, the Principal shall promptly remove that member from the polling lists.

8.15 Principals of Peerage Orders and Kingdom Orders of High Merit

Each of the Peerage Orders and Kingdom Orders of High Merit shall have a Principal, who shall be chosen by the Crown after conducting a written or electronic Order polling, from those within the Order. The initial term of office is hereby defined as three (3) years, which may be renewed by the Crown, subject to the agreement of the Principal, on a year to year basis for an unlimited number of terms. The Crown may remove a Principal at any time.

8.15.1 Duties and Responsibilities of Order Principals

The Principals of the Peerage Orders and the Kingdom Orders of High Merit shall:

- Maintain an electronic mailing list for their Order, which may be maintained as part of the ESP system
- Each member of each Order is responsible for providing the Principal with their email address and keeping that address current
- Provide the Order with notification of the Crown's intent to meet with the Order
- Maintain a database of possible candidates' information, work and commentary, in the Atlantian ESP system, accessible to the Crown and Heirs as needed

9 Rights and Duties of Atlantian Subjects

Every subject of Atlantia has the following rights and duties:

- The right to be heard by their Crown
- The right to avail themselves of the Complaint process as outlined in Society policy, Kingdom law and Kingdom policy
- The right to recommend other subjects for an Award or Order

- The duty to never knowingly allow the Crown to break Kingdom Law or Corpora and when advising shall do so in a manner so as not to embarrass the Crown, the Kingdom, or its subjects

10 Reservations and Restrictions

10.1 Smoking and Vaping

Smoking and Vaping are forbidden in any public main gathering area, or other public area where scheduled activities will occur, of a Society event. If a venue prohibits smoking and/or vaping, then neither activity is permitted at the Society event.

10.2 Clothing Restrictions

Anyone may attend Society events, provided the attendee wears an attempt at pre-17th century clothing. "Unevent" is excepted from this requirement.

11 Minors

11.1 Definition of Minors

In accordance with Society Seneschal's Handbook X 1, minors will be defined as persons who have not achieved the age of legal majority in the state, province, or country in which the event (function) is held. Adults are defined as persons who have achieved the age of legal majority or have been adjudicated as adults or emancipated minors by a court of law, in the state, province, or country, in which the event is held.

11.2 Minor Attendance Without Parent, Legal Guardian, or Non-Guardian

Minors may not enter (or remain at) an event without an adult who is designated as being responsible for them (parent, legal guardian or non-guardian).

11.3 Society Standards for Youth

The standards for minors/youth defined in the Society Seneschal's Handbook, Section X, shall be followed unless additional rules are specified in Kingdom Law or additional policies.

11.4 Minor Waivers

Minors attending an event with their parent or legal guardian must present at check in a signed minor waiver or a signed blue card.

11.5 Minor Waivers for Non-Guardians

Minors attending an event with a non-guardian must present at check in a signed "minor waiver" or a signed blue card and a "Minor's Medical Authorization with space for notarization" form signed by the minor's parent or legal guardian. These waivers/forms are available through the Society's Document Library at <https://sca.org/docs/library.html>.

12 Subsidiary Branches

A branch will be granted incipient status and be listed in the Kingdom Regnum when it has submitted a satisfactory New Branch Application to the Kingdom Seneschal's Office, and the Kingdom Seneschal has been satisfied that a legitimate attempt is being made to organize a new branch.

An attempt to organize a new branch within territory granted to an existing branch must be approved by any affected Seneschals.

12.1 New Branch Membership Requirements

A new branch must follow membership requirements as outlined in Corpora follow submission requirements as per Corpora III C & D and Kingdom Seneschal's policy.

12.2 Advancement of Branch Status

A branch will advance from incipient to full status, and have its officers ratified by their superiors, after filing a petition with the Kingdom Seneschal and satisfying any other requirements as specified by the Kingdom Seneschal.

Advancement to Barony status shall follow procedures set forth in Corpora III D.

12.3 Branch Officer Requirements

- Branch officers must be member of the SCA, Inc., and have access to the Atlantian newsletter
- To maintain full status, a Barony must maintain the set of officers required in the Society Seneschal's Handbook XVIII B
- To maintain full status, a Canton or Shire must maintain the set of officers required in Corpora III C 7
- Any group holding a fighting event must have a warranted Atlantian marshal as Marshal in Charge and appropriate marshals in each discipline for specific marshal activities
- A warranted MOL is required for Armored, Rebated Steel, Rapier, and Equestrian events and authorization activities

12.4 Branch Status Changes

A branch may petition the Kingdom Seneschal and the Crown to change its status, for example from Canton to Shire. When the petitioning branch is subsidiary to another branch, the Seneschal and Baron/Baroness (if any) for that latter branch must be consulted.

A branch which has ceased to meet the requirements for its status may be declared extinct or be degraded to a lower status, by recommendation from the Kingdom Seneschal and the Crown to the Board of Directors.

13 Grievances and Sanctions

This procedure applies only to internal SCA grievances. Any violation of modern law shall be reported to the appropriate modern authorities. Refer to Corpora X and the SCA Sanction Guide for procedures for grievances and sanctions.

13.1 Boards of Inquiry and Courts of Chivalry

A Board of Inquiry or Court of Chivalry is appointed at the Crown's discretion to recommend further action on such issues as the Crown may assess sanctions or refer to the Board of Directors. Their aim is to discover the basis of the dispute, prepare a list of pertinent witnesses and evidence, and make recommendations to the Crown for further actions, if applicable. The Board of Inquiry or Court of Chivalry may be as informal as desired by the Crown. Boards of Inquiry may not find against individuals or levy sanctions; their inquiries shall be of a problem-identification nature. All deliberations of a Board of Inquiry or Court of Chivalry shall be held confidential except that, in the event that a further Court is recommended, the findings and records of the Board of Inquiry or Court of Chivalry shall be forwarded to the further Court.

The Crown may choose to accept all, some, or none of the recommendations of the Board of Inquiry or Court of Chivalry. If the decision of the Crown differs from the recommendation, the Crown shall attach an explanation of their decision to the recommendation. After a final decision is reached, the Crown must send copies of all documentation and a final report to the Kingdom Seneschal to be placed in the Kingdom record.

13.1.1 Boards of Inquiry and Courts of Chivalry Members

A Board of Inquiry or Court of Chivalry shall consist of members chosen by the Crown, at the Crown's discretion, excluding the Crown. One member shall be named the Senior Member.

13.1.2 Responsibilities of Boards of Inquiry and Courts of Chivalry

- Within thirty (30) days of being named by the Crown, the Board of Inquiry or Court of Chivalry shall:
- Review the complaint referred to it by the Crown
- Investigate the matter including, but not limited to, contacting those involved as listed in the complaint
- Determine if the nature of the complaint made warrants sanctions or the convening of further Courts
- Within fifteen (15) days following the close of the inquiry, the Senior Member of a Board of Inquiry must prepare and submit to the Crown a written report setting forth the problem or issue identified, and a recommendation, which may be part of the report, to either convene a further Court, or to dismiss the complaint
- Within fifteen (15) days following the close of the inquiry, the Senior Member of a Court of Chivalry must prepare and submit to the Crown a written report setting forth the problem or issue identified, if not already completed by a Board of Inquiry, and a recommendation, which may be part of the report, to either levy sanctions or dismiss the complaint
- The report and recommendation shall be signed by all members of the Board of Inquiry or Court of Chivalry. The recommendation need not be unanimous but, in the case of multiple opinions, each member must acknowledge and sign an individual recommendation

13.1.3 Sanctions for a Court of Chivalry

Sanctions include, but are not limited to:

- Probation, which is a period of fixed duration, during which an individual is to be observed. At the end of probation, the individual's conduct is to be reviewed. When probation is imposed, the Crown shall immediately appoint a panel to observe the conduct of the individual. The makeup of this panel is left to the discretion of the Crown.

At the end of the probation period, the panel shall meet to discuss their observation of the accused's conduct, and to make a recommendation, in writing, to the Crown to lift the probation, or to continue the probation for a further fixed period of time, or to impose such other sanctions as listed in the laws as may be appropriate. If the probation is extended, the panel shall reconvene at the end of the extended probation period and review the accused's conduct during the extended probationary period

- Banishment. See Corpora for the types of banishment and the regulations regarding them
- Recommend Degradation from the Peerage. This is a sanction that may be brought only as a recommendation to the Board of Directors

- Temporary or permanent proscription from the lists
- Temporary or permanent proscription from any specified activities within the Kingdom
- Referral of the issue to a Court of Courtesy
- A public reprimand to be delivered by the Crown in Court and published in the Kingdom Newsletter and/or its electronic supplement
- Removal from any or all Kingdom orders. Removal of Arms is at the discretion of the Board of Director
- Removal from any or all offices held in the Kingdom of Atlantia (in conjunction with the corresponding Society Officer as appropriate)
- Requiring specific acts of recompense or atonement

13.1.4 Appeal

Either side may appeal to the Crown the recommendation of a Court of Chivalry within ten (10) days of receipt of that written recommendation. The Crown will issue Their decision on any appeal not more than thirty (30) days after the appeal is requested. Any appeals of such decision of the Crown must be made directly to the SCA Board of Directors.

13.2 Courts of Courtesy

A Court of Courtesy may be called by the Queen/Consort, at Their discretion, either upon Their own initiative, or in response to the petition of any subject(s). Courts of Courtesy are to assure courteous behavior among the subjects of Atlantia and may not be called for disputes of monetary matters, incompetence, or violations of the Rules of the Lists. Any individual summoned to a Court of Courtesy shall be given the primary reason for the Court when notified.

13.2.2 Sanctions for a Court of Courtesy

Actions following a Court of Courtesy may not be required, but should the Queen/Consort choose to use them, the following sanctions are available, including, but not limited to:

- A private reprimand issued by the Queen/Consort
- A public reprimand issued in Court and printed in the Kingdom newsletter
- Requiring an apology or other act of atonement
- Referral of the matter to a Board of Inquiry or a Court of Chivalry

The decision of the Queen/Consort is final and cannot be appealed, nor can the same case be brought before a succeeding Queen/Consort. The sanctions and decision must be in accordance with Kingdom Law, Corpora, and civil law.

Appendix C - Charter of the University of Atlantia

Ragnarr Thorvaldsson and Gwenllian de la Foret, Sixth Prince and Princess of Atlantia, granted a Royal Charter to the University of Atlantia on the 12th day of April, AS XIV.

The purpose of the University shall be to spread knowledge of the arts and sciences of the Middle Ages and Renaissance and practices of the Current Middle Ages throughout the realm.

The University shall be administered by a Chancellor, who must already be a Fellow of the University.

The Chancellor shall serve as an Officer of State reporting to the Kingdom Minister of Arts and Sciences.

The University of Atlantia can award the following degrees:

- A Bachelor's Degree is awarded after a student has completed twenty-six hours of classes
- A Fellowship in the University of Atlantia is awarded to those who have taught classes at three University sessions
- A Masters Degree is awarded to those who have earned their Bachelor's degree, are also Fellows of the University, have completed ten additional hours of classes as a student, and taught at two additional University Sessions
- Honorary Doctorates are awarded by the Chancellor at his or her discretion

The University shall hold between two and four sessions in each year. To best spread the University's influence to all parts of the realm, these sessions shall not be held twice in succession in the same region.

In order to increase accessibility for members of the populace across the Kingdom, each University session must have an online component. If a just cause is presented, after consultation with the University of Atlantia Chancellor and Staff, the required online component may be waived by the Crown.

The Chancellor shall have the right to display the device of the University. All Fellows shall have the right to display the badge of the University.

Appendix D - Treaties

D.1 Treaty of the White Scarf

"We, the Crowns of the Kingdoms of Ansteorra, the Outlands, Trimaris, Atenveldt, and An Tir do by these letters publish and proclaim our intent to create an order in our Kingdoms to be known as the Order of the White Scarf. We do mutually recognize that this order shall be chartered in our Kingdoms as custom allows."

"Further, We, the Crowns of the Kingdom of Atlantia do enter into this treaty, in accordance with our laws and customs."

"We pledge to honor the styles and precedence as shall be established by charter and to allow and encourage those of our Royal Cousins who may wish to establish this order in their own Kingdoms. By this document we command our heralds to present the title and badges of this order to the College of Arms, that it may be registered to the titularies of our Kingdoms."

[Signed by the Crowns of Ansteorra, the Outlands, Trimaris, Atenveldt, An Tir, and Atlantia] Signed by all parties as of April 20, 1996.

D.2 Treaty of the Golden Lance

We, the kingdoms signatory to this treaty, desire to offer deserved and due recognition to those in Our respective kingdoms who have demonstrated exceptional expertise in the arts of equestrian activities and who have, through service to the equestrian community, advanced those arts and promoted them; and

We desire to promote the equestrian arts within Our separate realms, and to other realms, by this recognition of exemplar individuals; and

We desire to establish in, between, and throughout Our realms a singular order to accomplish this recognition, such that all who hold membership in this order will be recognized equally for their skills and service to the equestrian arts among and within all kingdoms signatory to this treaty; and

We desire to register this order name and similar badges for each kingdom signatory to this treaty with the College of Arms.

Article the First ~

We do each therefore establish, create, and recognize within Our separate realms, according to Our kingdom law and the Laws of Arms, the Order of the Golden Lance. Further, We each declare that a member of this order inducted in any other kingdom signatory to this treaty shall be welcomed in all of Our realms and accorded the rights and precedence granted to Our own kingdom's members of this order. We do not, save only by the terms of other treaties in force if any are applicable, grant to any other kingdom the right to confer membership in this order upon one of Our populace without prior consultation with Us or Our successor Kings and Queens.

Article the Second ~

We do each grant to each and every other kingdom signatory to this treaty permission to conflict with our respective name and badge registrations for this Order of the Golden Lance for purposes of each kingdom's registration of the order with the College of Arms. We do each recognize that such permission granted cannot be revoked once registrations are completed. This treaty text shall be included with each registration of name or badge to the College of Arms and shall constitute documentation of such permission to conflict as the College may require.

Article the Third ~

We each mutually recognize that the name of this order registered to each signatory kingdom will add the kingdom name to the end of the phrase: "Order of the Golden Lance of".

Article the Fourth ~

We each mutually recognize that the badge registration by each signatory kingdom for this order will include the charge of "a lance Or" as either a primary charge or as an overall charge, all other badge components to be determined by each signatory kingdom. We each further mutually declare that members of this order are at any time entitled to wear either the badge of this order of the kingdom in which they were made members or the badge of the order of the kingdom in which they currently reside.

Article the Fifth ~

We do each direct and charge, through enactment of this treaty, Our respective Colleges of Heralds to speedily register the order name and badge for Our respective kingdoms with the College of Arms.

Article the Sixth ~

We, the kingdoms signatory to this treaty, do further declare Our intent to encourage other realms in the pursuit of the equestrian arts and to welcome such kingdoms who pursue these ideals to join this treaty as they may desire. By Our Hands, duly witnessed by Our Principal Heralds, do We enact these articles and make their terms binding as law in Our respective kingdoms in accordance with the procedures and laws of Our kingdoms.

[Signed by the Crowns of Ansteorra, Trimaris, Caid and Atlantia]
Signed by all parties as of September 24, 2011

D.3 Treaty of the Yew Bow

We, the kingdom signatory, to reciprocate acknowledgement given to the Yew Bow by orders of other Kingdoms, desire to offer deserved and due recognition to those in respective kingdoms who, like our order of the Yew Bow, have demonstrated exceptional expertise in one or more of the following areas: Target Archery, Combat Archery, Missile Combat, Thrown Weapons, Siege Weapons, or Equestrian Archery.

Further, we consider that an Equivalent Order is one from another Kingdom that: Requires exceptional skill and chivalry in one or more of the following areas: Target Archery, Combat Archery, Missile Combat, Thrown Weapons, Siege Weapons, or Equestrian Archery, and Requires service to their Kingdom and its people, knowledge of the courtly graces, and obedience to the laws and ideals of their Kingdom and the Society, and Confers a Grant of Arms upon the recipient, or confers an Award of Arms and is a polling order.

A member of an Equivalent Order visiting Atlantia shall be considered equal in rank and honor to members of the Order of the Yew Bow, and shall be invited to attend meetings of the Order of the Yew Bow and share their knowledge and opinions at such meetings. Such visitors shall not be counted in a polling, and shall not be invited to join long-term groups such as the Atlantia Yew Bow email list. A member of an Equivalent Order resident in Atlantia shall be invited to participate in all activities of the Order, including polling, as if they were members of the Order.

Society Orders currently recognized as Equivalent Orders are: i. Royal Missile Company in West Kingdom (GoA) ii. Order of Sagittarius in East Kingdom (AoA, polling) iii. Greenwood Company in Middle Kingdom (GoA) iv. Commanders of the Azure Archers in Atenveldt (GoA) v. Order of the Split Arrow in Meridies (AoA, polling) vi. Order of Chiron of Caid (GoA) vii. Signed as of September 18, 2015

Appendix E - Charter for the Kingdom Royal Notables

The Kingdom Royal Notables are selected for excellence in their field. They are expected to combine excellence of product or performance with a reasonable attempt at period materials and/or style.

E.1. Duties and Responsibilities of Kingdom Royal Notables

The Kingdom Royal Notables are expected to encourage the disciplines for which they are selected. Suggested goals and duties are:

- Services in their discipline for the Crown
- Sponsoring at least two competitions in their field during their tenure
- Working with Branch Officers to encourage the growth of their discipline
- Teaching in such venues as are available and reasonable

E.2. Kingdom Royal Notables

The Kingdom Royal Notables are positions held in service to the Crown of Atlantia for the tenure of one year, except where noted otherwise.

E.2.1. The Royal Bard for excellence in the individual performance of any of the following fields: Singing, Instrumental music, Poetic rendition, Storytelling. The Royal Bard is encouraged to be proficient in at least two of these fields. One or two bards will serve at the same time, depending on the whim of the Crown.

E.2.2. The Royal Brewer for excellence in making beer, ale, mead, wine, or other period alcoholic beverages.

E.2.3. The Poeta Atlantia for excellence in composition of poetry in at least two period forms.

E.2.4. The Scrivener Royal for excellence in calligraphy and illumination, and acts as the personal scribe of the Crown. The Scrivener Royal shall serve a term of six months and the competition to choose a new Scrivener Royal shall be held at Coronation. The Scrivener Royal must work in close cooperation with the Clerk of the Signet, ensuring the Clerk Signet is aware of all scribal tasks that have been assigned by the Crown.

E.2.5. The Royal Baker for excellence in producing baked goods such as breads, cakes, pastries, and wafers. The baker shall be proficient in at least two period types of baking.

E.2.6. The Royal Archer for their excellence on the archery ranges. The Royal Archer is to be chosen each year by right of arms. The outgoing Royal Archer shall conduct, and not participate in, an archery shoot open to all at an event where archery is the focus of the day. The top eight scoring archers from Atlantia at that archery event, who so choose to compete for the title, shall compete in a single elimination tournament. At the discretion of the Crown, the winner of the tournament shall become the new Royal Archer.

E.2.7. The Royal Rapier Champion for their excellence in rapier combat. The Royal Rapier Champion is to be chosen by right of arms and shall serve a term of six months. The competition to choose a new Royal Rapier Champion should be held within the first month after each Coronation after consultation with the new Crown. The outgoing Royal Rapier Champion shall conduct, and not participate in, a rapier tournament open to all at an event where rapier combat is a scheduled activity. At the discretion of the Crown, the winner of the tournament shall become the new Royal Rapier Champion.

E.2.8. The Kingdom Arts & Sciences Champion for excellence in their chosen field of arts and science display, to be a representative of the Crown at Interkingdom Events such as Gulf Wars, or Pennsic War, for the Arts and Sciences War Point competitions. The Champion is selected solely at the discretion of the Crown, and there may be more than one Champion selected.

E.3. Selection of a Kingdom Royal Notable

Kingdom Royal Notable competitions are held annually at Kingdom Level Events, unless the Crown sees a need to do otherwise.

- Competitions shall be run by the current Kingdom Royal Notable, as a representative of the Crown, in consultation with the Crown and appropriate Great Officer of State, if applicable
- If the Kingdom Royal Notable is unable to run the competition for their successor, the Crown, in consultation with the appropriate Great Officer of State, shall designate a proxy to run the competition
- Competitions will be announced on the Kingdom Announcements List and in the Kingdom Newsletter's or its' electronic supplement at least twice before the event where the competition takes place
- The current Kingdom Royal Notable, in conjunction with the Crown and appropriate Great Officer of State shall set the details of the competition and judging standards
- Judges should be drawn from the following:
 - The Crown or their proxy
 - The Heirs or their proxy
 - The appropriate Great Officer of State or their proxy
 - The current Royal Notable
 - Additional judges may be chosen at the discretion of the Royal Notable
- It is recommended that there are at least three judges
- The Kingdom Royal Notable shall be chosen by the Crown
- Kingdom Royal Notables must be citizens of the Kingdom of Atlantia

E.4. Removal of a Kingdom Royal Notable

The Crown may remove a Kingdom Royal Notable at Their discretion. If the Kingdom Royal Notable is unable to complete his or her term or is removed early for any reason, the Crown shall direct the appropriate Great Officer of State to hold a competition at the next convenient Kingdom Level Event, or the Crown may choose a successor.
